

7:00 Welcome and Opening by Jonathan, Coordinating Council Chair

Welcome everyone to the 950th Meeting of the Coordinating Council.

We will begin with a moment of reflection, followed by the “I am Responsible Declaration”;

I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help,

I want the hand of A.A, always to be there. And for that: I am responsible.

We of the San Diego Coordinating Council of Alcoholics Anonymous come together in Unity to further our common work – ‘to help the still suffering Alcoholic.’ This demands that we are respectful in our language and comportment, lest we spoil our chance to Unify more completely.

For all our online attendees, you will now be muted for a smooth meeting. While the meeting is in progress, please use the “Raise Hand” symbol under “Reactions” if you have a question or comment. You will be called on when it’s your turn to share. Also, all online attendees are requested to turn on their cameras, be present and not engaged in other activities. If your camera is off, you will be put in the waiting room. One person speaks at a time. Respect the Chair. Those who have not spoken on an issue will be given preference over other speakers. Respect each other.

Please remember to check in with Erik by 7:15;

If you’re a new Coordinator here in-person tonight and have not yet registered, please see Erik by 7:15 – If online, please complete the online registration form – the link will be put in the chat room.

Coordinating Council Standing Committees

Are you available to serve A.A.? “Availability” is not about whether I want the job or not. Availability is not about whether I think I would be good at the job. Availability is about; do I have the suggested sobriety? If there are other suggested qualifications, do I have those qualifications and to the best of my knowledge, do I have no scheduling conflicts to serve in the commitment? If my answers to all of those questions are yes, I should make myself available and let my Higher Power decide if that is the position I should be in.” Also, please talk to the members in your group about serving on the Council. Members at large may be elected to positions. It is not required that you are a Coordinator to serve on a committee.
